

Brookstone Summer/Winter League Policies and

Agreements Behavior Policy

The staff at Brookstone are eager to instruct, support, and encourage participants as they grow through their camp/league experiences. Consequently, it is imperative that participants are always responsive to Brookstone staff and respectful both of their peers and staff so that the environment remains safe and positive. Though each counselor may provide additional directives depending on the specific event, there are certain expectations that must be met throughout each camp/league and on any trips on which participants attend as a part of a Brookstone camp/league.

Participants will:

- Respect other campers/league participants and adults.
- Listen attentively.
- Respond politely.

Participants will NOT:

- Damage school property or the property of others.
- Behave aggressively towards one another.

Additionally, all campers/league participants must be potty-trained. In the interest of the safety of all campers, camp staff will not tolerate misbehavior. Failure to comply with the rules set forth above may result in the dismissal from camp/league.

Cancellation

Camp/League cancellations will not be refundable if made less than 10 days prior to the camp.

Brookstone School reserves the right to cancel any event that does not meet the minimum attendance requirement.

Any request for refund should be submitted to Brittany Jordan, bjordan@brookstoneschool.org.

I hereby authorize Brookstone School to secure medical attention and care for my child as deemed necessary. I shall assume responsibility for payment of services. I agree to keep the school's office informed of changes in telephone numbers, etc. where I can be reached.

I understand that these vehicles may not have seat belts. I agree that, even if the vehicles have seat belts, Brookstone School is not responsible for the proper use of such seat belts. I understand that transportation involves an inherent risk of physical injury.

In an emergency, I acknowledge that I am solely responsible for all medical and other costs arising out of bodily injury or any loss sustained through participation in Brookstone activities, camps and/or leagues. I authorize program staff to secure any licensed hospital, physician, ambulance, and/or medical personnel for treatment deemed necessary for the participant's immediate care.

By accepting this agreement, I agree that this release includes physical injury, death, property damage, or emotional harm caused by negligence of the employees, agents, officials and trustees of Brookstone School when the law allows for a defense of immunity under the Recreational Property Act, the State Tort Claims Act or any applicable statute or law. I agree that this release does not include willful misconduct by Brookstone School and its agents, employees, officials and trustees; however, Brookstone School is not liable for the criminal or negligent acts of third parties.
